

Supervision record

Staffbook

Free to keep, copy and share

One to one supervision in a children's home, the page that shows it happened and what it changed.

Regulation 33(4) says staff receive practice-related supervision from someone with the right experience. A record that shows the conversation and the agreed actions is what an inspector can read. The Word version is in the pack so you can type into it. Each record runs to two pages with room to write.

Supervisee _____

Role _____

Supervisor _____

Date and time _____

Date of last supervision _____

1. How are you?

Wellbeing, workload, anything outside work that is affecting it. Written in their words.

2. The children

Each child they key work or are worried about: what has changed, what the plan says, what is working, what is not, risks.

3. Safeguarding and incidents since last time

Concerns raised, incidents, restraint, missing episodes, complaints. What was recorded, who was told, and when.

4. Practice

What went well, what was hard, feedback given and received, anything observed on shift.

5. Training and the level 3

Courses due or done, progress on the diploma, what would help.

6. Actions from last time, and whether they happened

7. Actions agreed today: what, who, by when

8. Anything else

Concerns about a colleague can also go to the Responsible Individual, the designated officer or Ofsted. Nobody needs permission to raise one.

Date and time _____

Date of last supervision _____

1. How are you?

Wellbeing and workload. The manager's own supervision is the record most often missing at inspection.

2. The home

Staffing and cover, agency use, the rota, vacancies, anyone struggling, anyone leaving.

3. The children

Placements, risks, anything that keeps you awake, decisions needing the RI.

4. Regulation 44 and 45

Actions from the last visit report and whether they closed; where the six month review is.

5. Safeguarding, complaints, notifications

Anything reported since last time, to whom, and what happened next.

6. Your development

The level 5, and what you need from the RI.
